

Jerrie Lindsay

Pearl "Jerrie" Gillis Lindsay, 77, died Aug. 26, 1990, in Provo, of Alzheimer's disease.

She was born May 14, 1913, in Parowan, to Rubin and Mable Elzina Hyatt Gillies. She married Robert Dean Lindsay, Sept. 18, 1939, in Heber City. He died in 1966. She received her education in Beaver and graduated from Beaver High School. She had worked for the Low Hotel in Beaver, Mayflower Cante in Provo, F.W. Woolworth Company in Provo, and at the Utah State Hospital as a nurse's aide, until her retirement. She lived in Beaver for 27 years. The remainder of her life she lived in Provo. She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Her hobbies included reading, sewing, camping and dancing.

She is survived by two brothers, Claude R. Gillies, Buena Park, Calif.; Merrill R. Gillies, Provo. She was preceded in death by one sister and one brother, Helene Craighead, Joseph Gillies. Graveside services will be Friday at the Mountain View Cemetery in Beaver. Friends may meet at the cemetery. Services are under the direction of Berg Mortuary.

Jerrie Lindsay

Pearl "Jerrie" Gillis Lindsay, 77, died Aug. 26, 1990, in Provo, of Alzheimer's disease.

She was born May 14, 1913, in Parowan, to Rubin and Mable Elzina Hyatt Gillies. She married Robert Dean Lindsay, Sept. 18, 1939, in Heber City. He died in 1966. She received her education in Beaver and graduated from Beaver High School. She had worked for the Low Hotel in Beaver, Mayflower Cante in Provo, F.W. Woolworth Company in Provo, and at the Utah State Hospital as a nurse's aide, until her retirement. She lived in Beaver for 27 years. The remainder of her life she lived in Provo. She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Her hobbies included reading, sewing, camping and dancing.

She is survived by two brothers, Claude R. Gillies, Buena Park, Calif.; Merrill R. Gillies, Provo. She was preceded in death by one sister and one brother, Helene Craighead, Joseph Gillies. Graveside services will be Friday at the Mountain View Cemetery in Beaver. Friends may meet at the cemetery. Services are under the direction of Berg Mortuary.